

Digital Marketing Specialist

Vantage Growth Collective | Bengaluru, India (Hybrid) | Experience: 2-4 years

About the Role

We're hiring a Digital Marketing Specialist to plan and execute multi-channel campaigns for our growing portfolio of D2C and B2B clients. You'll own campaign performance across SEO, paid media, and email, turning data into action.

Responsibilities

- Plan, launch, and optimize campaigns across Google Ads, Meta Ads, and email marketing
- Manage SEO strategy including keyword research, on-page optimization, and content planning
- Track and report on campaign performance using Google Analytics 4 and ad platform dashboards
- Run A/B tests on ad creatives, landing pages, and email subject lines to improve conversion rates
- Collaborate with content and design teams to produce campaign assets
- Manage monthly ad budgets and ensure spend efficiency against ROAS targets
- Present campaign insights and recommendations to clients and internal stakeholders

Required Skills

- Hands-on experience with Google Ads, Meta Ads Manager, and Google Analytics 4
- Strong understanding of SEO fundamentals and on-page optimization
- Experience with email marketing platforms such as Mailchimp or HubSpot
- Analytical mindset with the ability to translate data into actionable recommendations
- Excellent written communication and content sense

Nice to Have

- Experience marketing to retail, D2C, or e-commerce brands
- Basic HTML/CSS knowledge for landing page tweaks
- Familiarity with marketing automation tools
- Experience managing paid social budgets above ₹10 lakh per month

What We Offer

- Competitive salary with performance-linked bonuses
- Flexible hybrid work model
- Learning and development budget, including ad platform certifications
- Health insurance for you and your family
